When will you become one?
We are looking for talented trainees.

HOTEL BERLIN, BERLIN

A true Berliner in the very heart of the city!

260,000 guests per year, 701 rooms, first-class restaurants, a modern fitness and spa area and spacious, high-tech conference rooms. Classic and modern, enduring and active, traditional and forward-looking. Here, everyone senses the heartbeat of the metropolis and senses its multifaceted spirit, from glamorous and elegant to flashy and trashy. In short, we are modern and hip, business is booming and we are looking confidently towards the future. The ideal environment for launching your career at the highest level!

First choice for your training!

A personal and first-class training programme assuring you a future in hotels awaits you at one of the top locations in the varied and exciting hotel and gastronomy industry. Learn your trade with us and many doors will be open to you!

Career — step by step

During your varied training programme you will get to know all departments within the hotel in detail. You will be able to prove your know-how to us at regular intervals by independently managing selected projects. We encourage and reward you: in special trainee competitions you can put what you have learned to the test and will also certainly want to take part in our attractive bonus programme for hotel employees.

House Of Talents!

What we expect beyond talent:

We are the „House of Talents“ – the employer of first choice – and we look forward to recruiting young talents with lots of ideas, whom we guarantee the best development chances from the very beginning. Clearly, the main prerequisites are good references and reports, a well-groomed appearance and a polite manner. You should be committed, flexible and reliable and of course, enjoy working as part of a well-coordinated team. Furthermore, you will be willing to work shift patterns and weekends and will have a good knowledge of English.

Your personal perspectives:

On successful completion of your training, you will have a whole range of career possibilities: For example, in hotels in Germany and abroad or working for airlines, ocean carriers and other tourist businesses. You could even become self-employed. By continuing your training, you could also qualify as a master or hotel manager. Our training also offers the best qualifications for a degree in Tourism or Marketing!
